This book is dedicated to the many globally, who have supported me during my theology studies since 2020 and now writing career. From making unsolicited and generous donations, to dropping off numerous delicious home-made meals during my studying and lifting me up in prayer, as well as in other ways, I am extremely thankful to each and every one of you - Proverbs 4:18.

Introduction

Many are seeking for something, other than those who have found each rainbow had no end. Examining the lives of the “greatest” people who have ever lived, along with greatest events and accomplishments, these are compared against the life of Jesus in the final chapter, for “How?” He has the greatest meaning and ultimate value.

In terms of the people and events chosen, these are merely to be used as a comparison with Jesus. No definite claim is being made that they are definitely “the ultimate greatest” in their fields and historical importance and that decision can be left up to others.

The book is divided into 6 chapters: Who? What? Why? When? Where? How? and can be read in under 60 minutes. Where found available, their religious beliefs and the sources of the quotes for each person giving their religious viewpoints are provided. For others the accuracy of the quotes is inferred, although ultimately could potentially lack historicity.

Please note that for each person a number is given in brackets referencing why they might be “the greatest”, in relation to the corresponding different pages in the last chapter, of why Jesus is instead.

Who is the greatest?

Is being a hugely powerful and rich emperor the greatest? Or how about starting a global religion? Maybe being a great scientist, or biologist? Perhaps starting a famous philosophy in the East, West, or Ancient Greece? Maybe being a great American politician, or a romantic? Or what about being a great explorer? None are the greatest...

“Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal.”

(Eccles. 1:2)

1. Who was the greatest military leader?

Originally known as Napoleone Buonaparte, Napoleon I Emperor of France was born in Corsica in 1769 and many have said he was one of the greatest military leaders. He had numerous exceptional battle victories, including a return after escaping from the Island of Elba. Despite his genius, he was soundly defeated and exiled to St. Helena, dying of cancer in 1821 aged 51. Did Napoleon have the greatest power (#51)?

“When it is a question of money, everybody is of the same religion.” (Napoleon in His Own Words, Jules Bertaut, p. 13)

2. Who was the greatest religious leader?

Meditation

Prince Siddhartha, Buddhism's founder, is presumed to have been born within the borders of present-day Nepal, in 563 B.C.. Despite being born into luxury, he was profoundly dissatisfied and pursued a spiritual path including meditation. At the age of thirty-five, he felt that he had become "enlightened", spreading his message for the rest of his life until 483 B.C.. He denied that there is a soul or self. Is the Buddha the greatest teacher (#58)?

"The Noble Truth of the Path Leading to the Cessation of suffering is this;" (The Oxford Dictionary of Quotations, p. 565)

3. Who was the greatest scientist?

$$E = mc^2$$

He was best known for his theory of relativity: “ $E = mc^2$ ”. His biggest regret was assisting in the development of the atomic bomb for America. Contrary to belief, whilst he did not believe in a personal God, he was also not an atheist (see quote). Is Albert Einstein's nuclear weapon the greatest regrettable event (#54)?

“I am not an atheist... We see a universe marvellously arranged, obeying certain laws, but we understand the laws only dimly. Our limited minds cannot grasp the mysterious force that sways the constellations.”
(interview with Albert Einstein, Glimpses of the Great, George Sylvester Viereck, p. 372)

4. Who was the greatest biologist?

Born in England in 1809, during 1831 he set sail on the Beagle, working as its naturalist. On the Origin of Species by Means of Natural Selection, or the Preservation of Favoured Races in the Struggle for Life, was published in 1859; he was not an atheist (see quote). Did Charles Darwin have the greatest wisdom (#53)?

“In my most extreme fluctuations I have never been an atheist in the sense of denying the existence of a God. — I think that generally (& more and more so as I grow older) but not always, that an agnostic would be the most correct description of my state of mind.” (Letter to John Fordyce, 7 May 1879)

5. Who was the greatest Chinese philosopher?

Born in about 551 B.C. in northeastern China, he was essentially a secular philosopher, who was interested in both personal and political morality and conduct. Confucianism stressed obligations of individuals, rather than rights and he had much less to say about the afterlife and Heaven. Is Confucius the greatest teacher (#58)?

"Heaven means to be one with God." (Confucius)

6. Who was the greatest French philosopher?

François-Marie Arouet, known by his pen name, was the French Enlightenment's leading figure. He was a great believer in the importance of freedom of speech and the press. During his life, he was a prolific writer, amassing more than 30,000 pages of writing. He was also a deist. Did Voltaire have the greatest eloquence (#57)?

"He wanted to know how they prayed to God in El Dorado. "We do not pray to him at all," said the reverend sage. "We have nothing to ask of him. He has given us all we want, and we give him thanks continually." (Candide, Voltaire, p. 49)

A marble bust of the ancient Greek philosopher Plato. He is depicted with a full, curly beard and hair, and a serious expression. The bust is set against a plain, light blue background.

7. Who was the greatest Greek philosopher?

This ancient Greek philosopher was born in 427 B.C.. He wrote thirty-six books, which are mostly about ethical and political questions, as well as metaphysics and theology. His influence has endured for more than two millennia. He was not monotheistic, although believed in a "supreme being". Is Plato the greatest teacher (#58)?

43. Where did the greatest “Cold War” take place?

Following the Second World War, this was the restricted rivalry between the United States, Soviet Union and their respective allies. It was primarily waged politically and economically. The thirty-fifth American president and a Catholic, he had to deal with many challenges, including the threat of nuclear war. Is John F. Kennedy's eloquence the greatest (#57)?

"Let us go forth to lead the land we love, asking His blessing and His help, but knowing that here on earth God's work must truly be our own." (inaugural address by John F. Kennedy)

44. Where did the greatest musical composer come from?

Born in Bonn, Germany in 1770 and brought up in a Catholic family, this famous composer went on to become completely deaf by 1819. Nevertheless, during his life he produced numerous works such as the 1804 "Eroica" Symphony", which hold him in musical pre-eminence unto this day. Was Ludwig van Beethoven the greatest creator (#51)?

"Then let us all do what is right, strive with all our might toward the unattainable, develop as fully as we can the gifts God has given us, and never stop learning." (Ludwig van Beethoven)

45. Where were the greatest “Hanging Gardens”?

These gardens are theorised to have been perhaps made by a famous king in now modern-day Iraq. He reigned from about 605–561 B.C. and the gardens were a huge complex, with elevated terraces. They were considered one of the “Seven Wonders of the World”. Are King Nebuchadnezzar’s Hanging Gardens of Babylon the greatest (#60)?

“I am the prince, the favourite, the creature of thy hand.” (King Nebuchadnezzar II’s inscription to a pagan god)

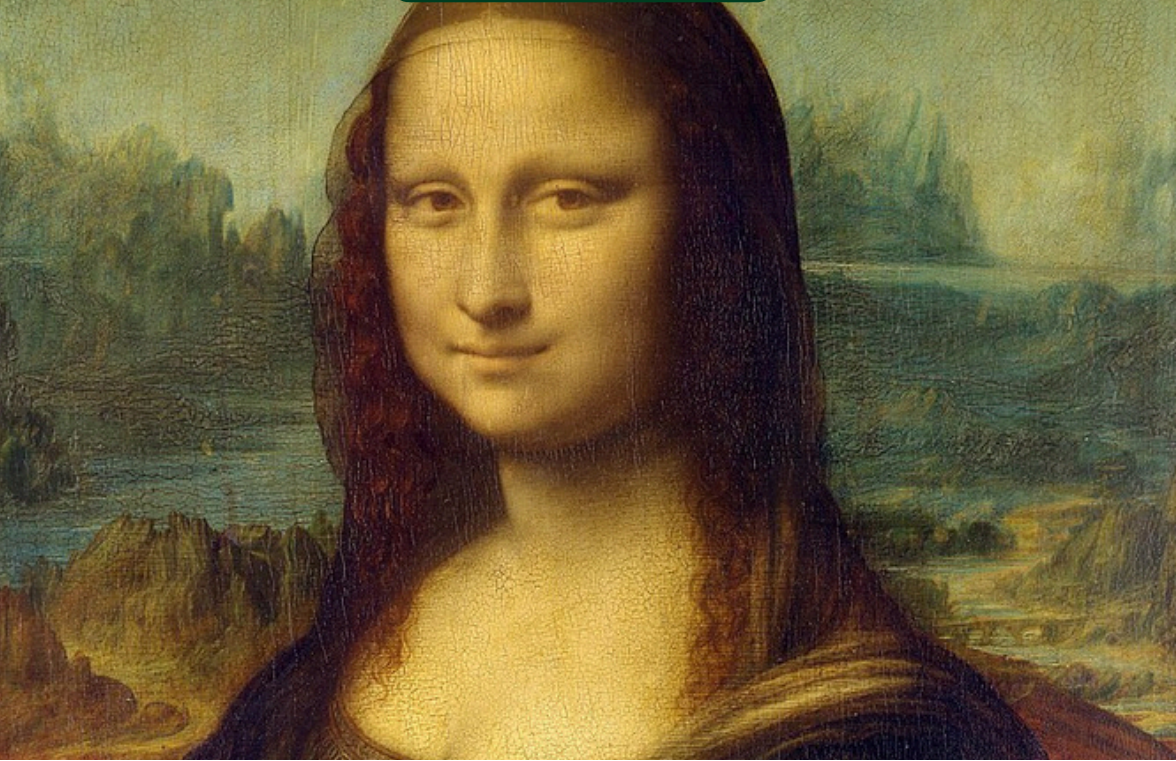

46. Where did the greatest silent movie actor come from?

He was born in London in 1889 to parents who were actors and was taken to church. However, he had an unstable home life and from an early age began a career on the stage. By 1910 he had travelled to America and went on to have a highly successful film career. Is Charlie Chaplin's fame the greatest (#56)?

"I'm definitely an agnostic. Some scientists say that if the world were to stop revolving we'd all disintegrate. But the world keeps on going. Something must be holding us all in place — some Supreme Force. But what it is I couldn't tell you." (My Father Charlie Chaplin, Charles Chaplain Jr., p. 239)

47. Where was the greatest painting made?

Born in 1452, he was an Italian artist, engineer, inventor and scientist. Some of his most famous paintings include The Last Supper and Mona Lisa. His ideas for inventions include a helicopter and a tank-like fighting vehicle. Was Leonardo da Vinci the greatest teacher of new concepts (#58)?

“To lie is so vile, that even if it were in speaking well of godly things it would take off something from God's grace; and Truth is so excellent, that if it praises but small things they become noble.”

(Leonardo da Vinci)

48. Where was the greatest infamous Civil Rights Movement bus arrest?

Born in 1913 and a Christian, Rosa Parks woman refused to give up her seat on a bus, which led to a famous bus boycott. This ended racial segregation on public transportation. Was Rosa Parks' leadership in the Montgomery Bus Boycott the greatest (#58)?

“I learned to put my trust in God and to see Him as my strength. Long ago I set my mind to be a free person and not to give in to fear.” (Rosa Parks)

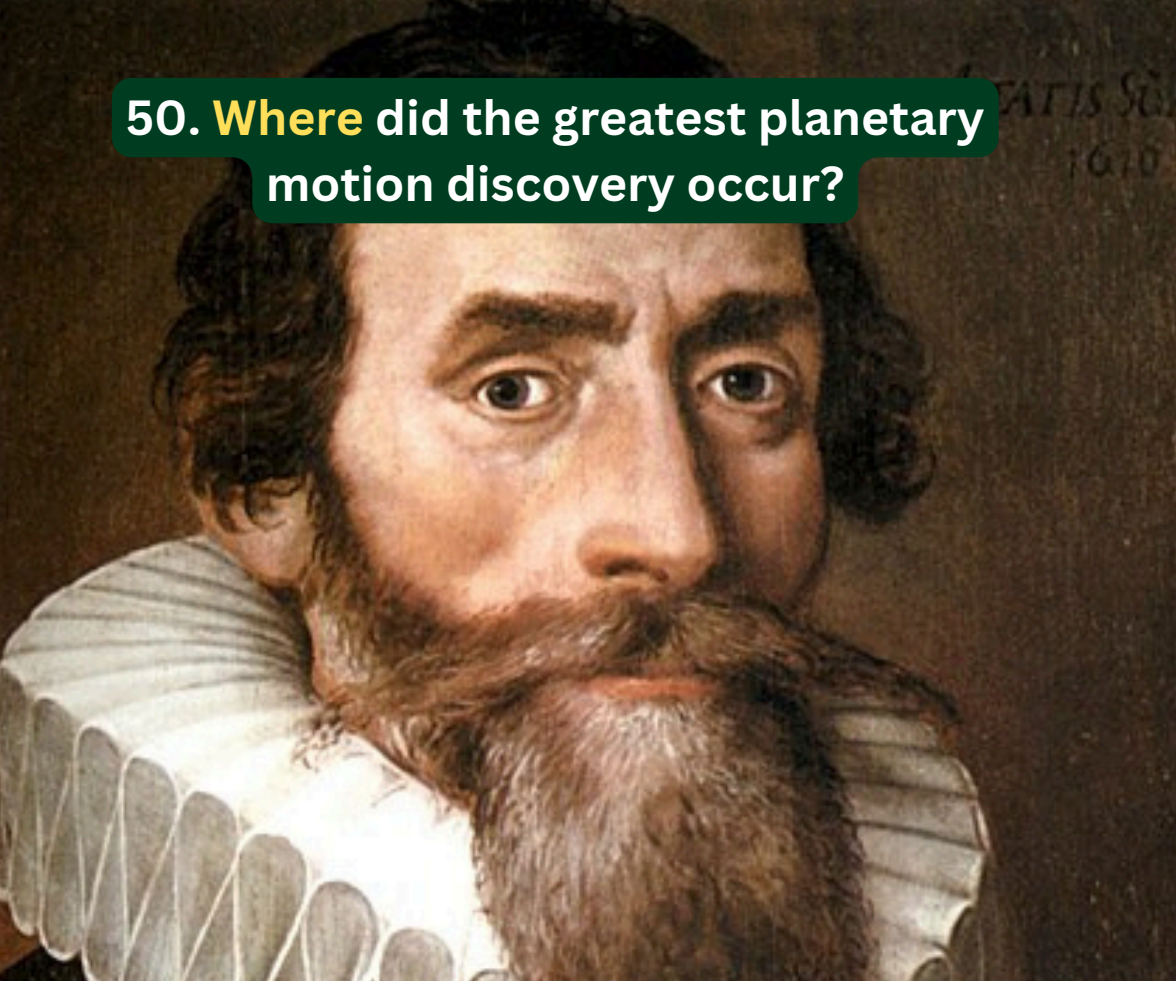

49. Where was the greatest invasion of Britain?

He invaded Britain twice, the first time being 55 B.C. and subsequently 54 B.C.. Despite further campaigns in later years, Scotland was never fully subdued. This leader was assassinated in 44 B.C. and was subsequently “recognised as a god”. Was Julius Caesar’s leadership the greatest (#55)?

“It was the wont [intention] of the immortal gods sometimes to grant prosperity and long impunity to men whose crimes they were minded to punish in order that a complete reverse of fortune might make them suffer more bitterly.” (Julius Caesar)

50. Where did the greatest planetary motion discovery occur?

Born in 1571, in Germany and a devout Protestant, they went on to discover the laws of planetary motion. He also made some other minor contributions to astronomy as well. Is Johannes Kepler's wisdom the greatest (#53)?

"The chief aim of all investigations of the external world should be to discover the rational order and harmony which has been imposed on it by God and which He revealed to us in the language of mathematics."
(Johannes Kepler)

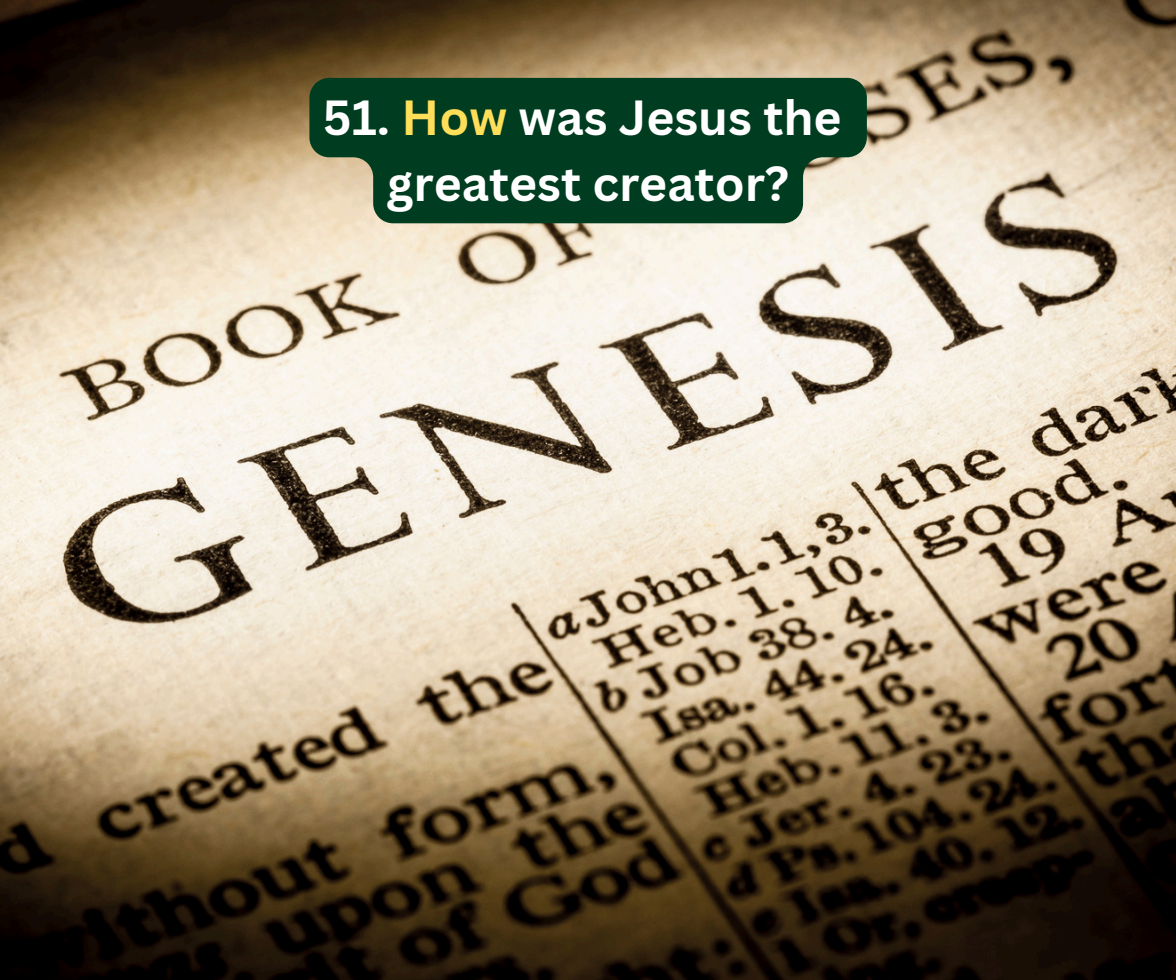

How is Jesus the greatest?

The greatest: creator,
power, wisdom, event,
leader, fame,
eloquence, teacher
and humanitarian.
Jesus is the greatest...

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.”

(John 14:6)

51. How was Jesus the greatest creator?

The Bible says that Jesus is the creator of all things (see quote). That means that he made the whole world, which is far greater than any human architect. Jesus is greater than Michelangelo's paintings, Taylor Swifts' music, Elon Musk's SpaceX, Steve Jobs' iPhones, or Ludwig van Beethoven's music. They are not the greatest.

"All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made." (John 1:3)

52. How was Jesus' power the greatest?

Whilst Jesus allowed his power to be laid down on earth, ultimately he is far more powerful than anyone, even being able to raise the dead.

Napoleon's empire, Stalin's Russia, Queen Elizabeth II's realm, Adolf Hitler's dictatorship, or Alexander the Great's conquests have no comparison with him. They are not the greatest.

"And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth."

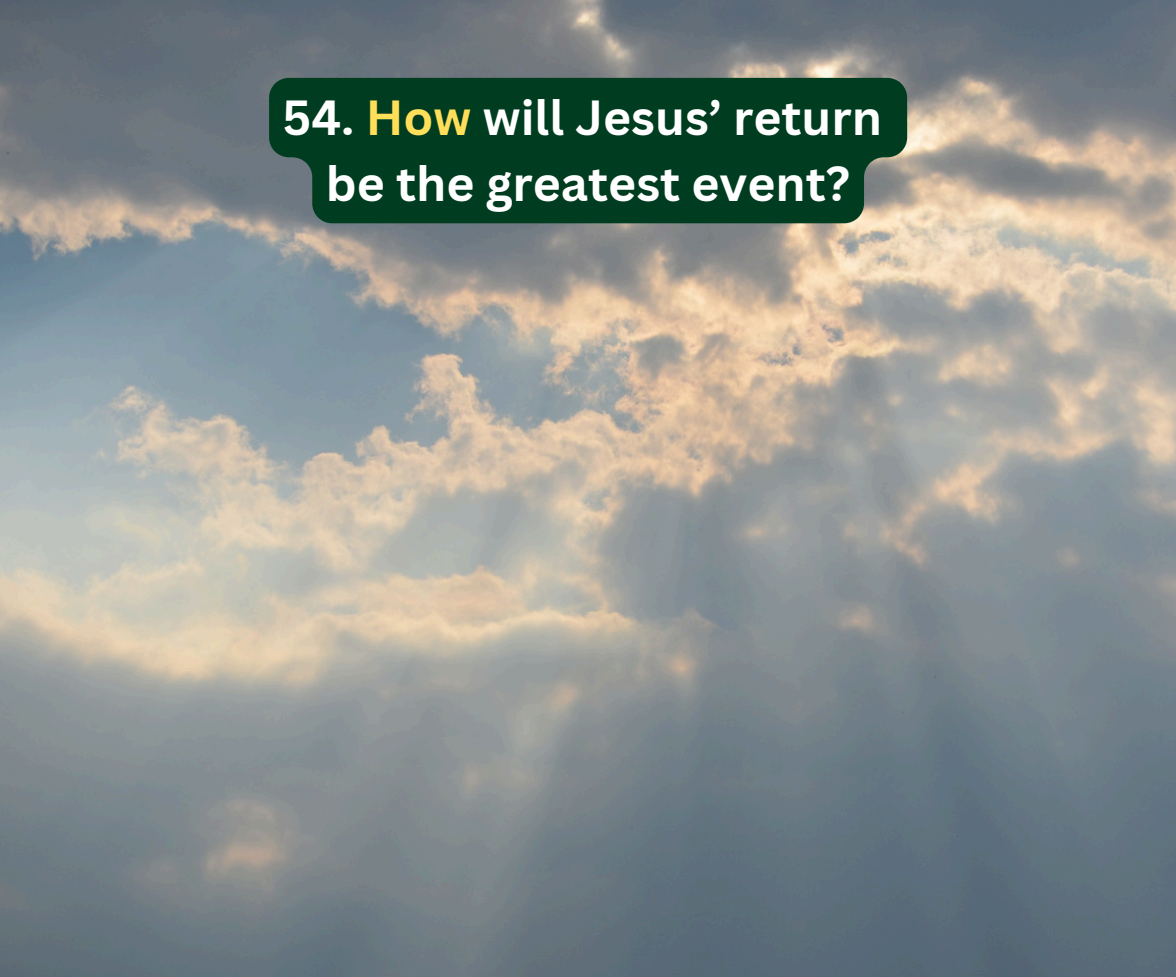

(Matt. 28:18)

53. How did Jesus have the greatest wisdom?

No one before or since has demonstrated the wisdom of Jesus and from teaching to love our enemies, or explaining prophecies, he is unsurpassed. Darwin's theory of evolution, Charles Babbage's computer design, Michael Faraday's study of electromagnetism, Guglielmo Marconi's design of the radio, or Johannes Kepler's astronomy were without importance. They are not the greatest.

"The officers answered, Never man spake like this man." (John 7:46)

54. How will Jesus' return be the greatest event?

Jesus will impress the whole world and even his enemies, with everyone seeing his glorious return (see quote). The atomic bomb Albert Einstein helped create, the attempted climb of Everest by George Mallory and Andrew Irvine, Harry Houdini's illusions, Captain Smith's infamous Titanic sinking, or Neil Armstrong walking on the moon have no comparison. They are not the greatest.

“Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him.” (Rev. 1:7)

55. How is Jesus the greatest leader?

Jesus is the ultimate leader: He has defeated the devil, death, sin and given eternal life to the world. George Washington's presidency, Christopher Columbus' exploration, Abraham Lincoln's Civil War guidance, Rosa Parks's inspiration or Julius Caesar bravery do not compare. They are not the greatest.

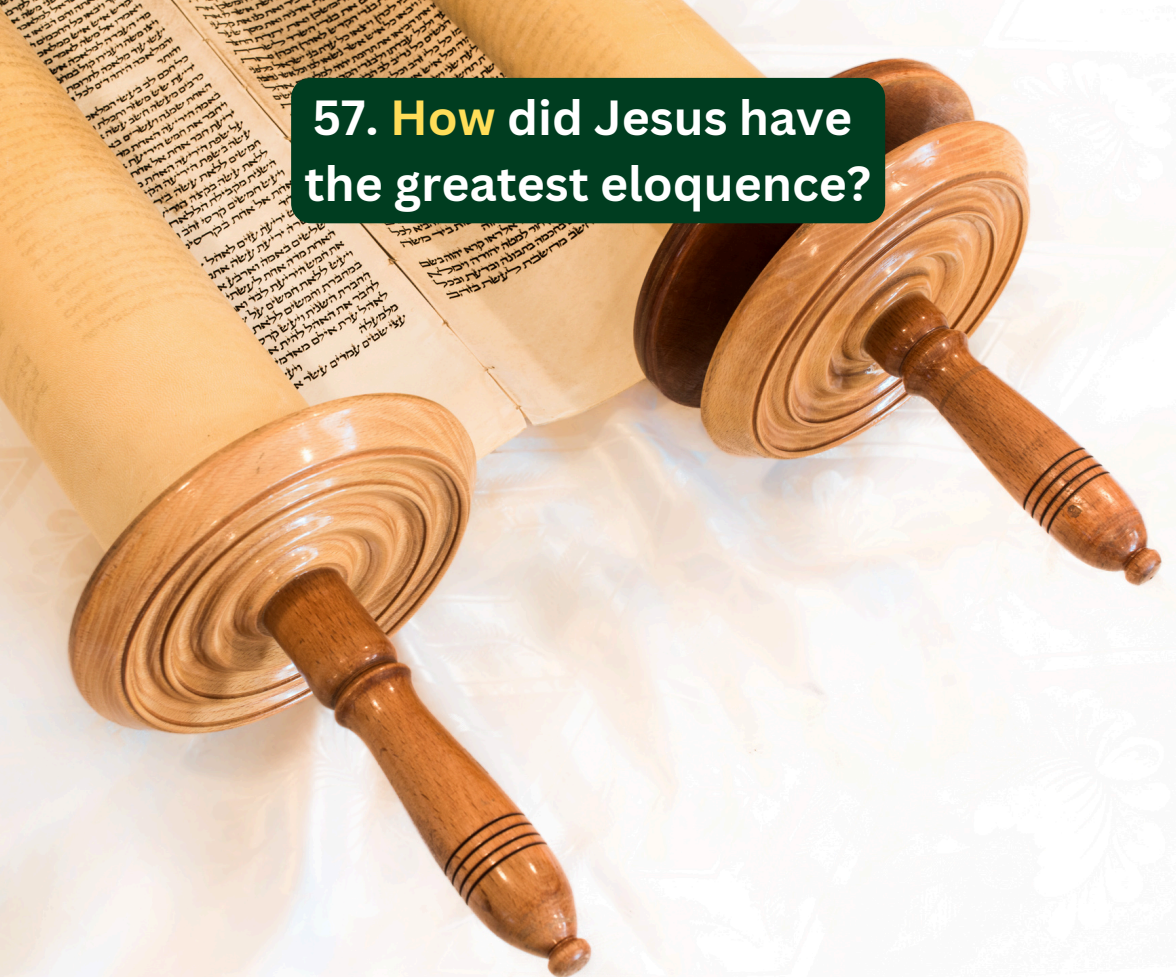

“And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.” (Matt. 4:19)

56. How is Jesus' fame the greatest?

No one in existence has been as famous as Jesus. From being the head of the world's largest religion and setting the AD and BC years, to being quoted by American presidents, he is the most well-known. Tiger Woods's golf, Usain Bolt's sprinting, LeBron James' basketball, Britney Spears' singing and Charlie Chaplin's acting have no comparison. They are not the greatest.

“And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.” (Luke 4:14)

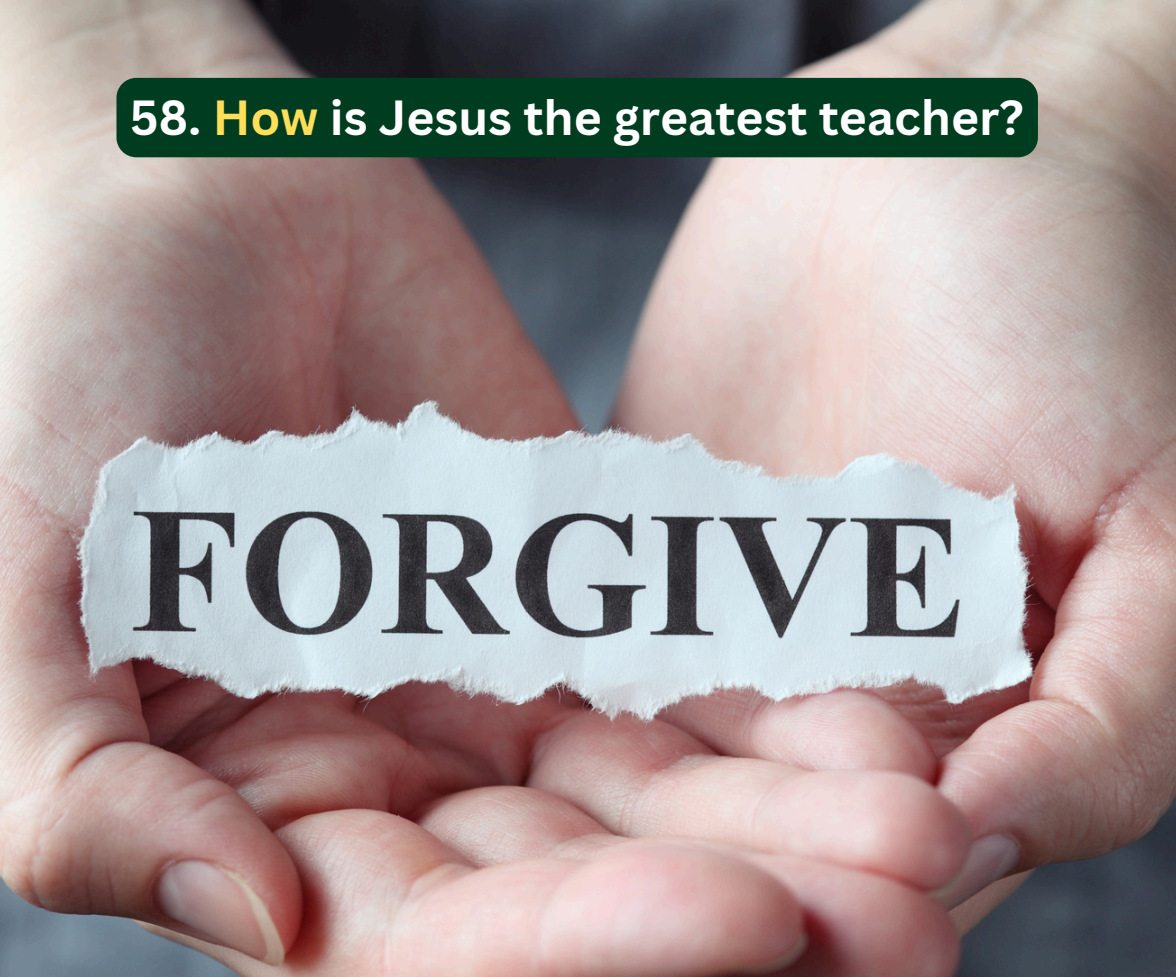

57. How did Jesus have the greatest eloquence?

Despite being a humble carpenter from Nazareth, his remarkable words have entered into regular speech around the world. Voltaire's writings, Homer's poems, Alexander Graham Bell's first words on a phone, William Shakespeare's plays and John F. Kennedy's speech have no comparison. They are not the greatest.

"And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power." (Luke 4:32)

58. How is Jesus the greatest teacher?

FORGIVE

Jesus turned the world upside down in its thinking, including teaching about forgiveness and the way to Heaven through Him. Buddha's religion, Confucius' ideas, Plato's philosophies, Karl Marx's social struggles and Leonardo da Vinci's futuristic designs have no comparison to Him. They are not the greatest.

"Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6)

59. How is Jesus the greatest humanitarian?

Jesus went about doing good, healing, giving hope and even miraculously feeding people. Henry Ford's philanthropy, Ronaldo's outreach, Sigmund Freud's psychology, Mahatma Gandhi's good works and Louis Pasteur's medical work have no comparison to Jesus' life and His eternal help for humanity. They are not the greatest.

"But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd."
(Matt. 9:36)

60. How is Jesus the greatest?

The greatest creator, powerful, wise, spectacular future return, leader, famous, eloquent, teacher and humanitarian can only be named to one person in history. Casanova's adulterous romances, Serena Williams's tennis wins, Maria Branyas Morera's long life, Elvis Presley's success, or King Nebuchadnezzar's Hanging Gardens of Babylon have no comparison. Search for your nearest Seventh-day Adventist Church (www.adventist.org/find-a-church) and find that Jesus is the greatest.

"Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am." (John 8:58)
